Congregational Meeting – December 1

Join us for a very brief congregational meeting on Dec. 1 following the worship service to approve the pastors housing allowance, correct the minutes of a previous meeting, and elect nominees to leadership positions. We appreciate your attendance to ensure a quorum is present.

Save the Date

Christmas Pageant from Scratch & Soup Supper, 12/8/24

Beyond the Background:

Courageous, Revolutionary Women in the Life of Moses

Perhaps the preeminent human character in the Old Testament, Moses has been a topic of countless Bible studies. Unfortunately, those connected to his story are often relegated to the background information. Many of those moved are crucial to the story of Moses and the people of God. The audacious faith and bold action of several women chart the course for Moses' life and God's liberating work in the world. Join us for 4 weeks (10/30, 11/6, 11/13, 11/20) as we study the stories of these women and discover how God uses their fearless faith to deliver and bless God's people. See you Wednesday mornings at 9:30 in the Skylight Room.

Advent Poinsettias Available

If you wish to order a poinsettia to grace the sanctuary during Advent, you may designate it "In Memory" or "In Honor" of a family member or friend. To purchase, envelopes can be found on the information table. Please return envelopes with payment by 12/1/24.

Thanks for Serving

To everyone who joined us for our Fall Food Packing, thank you for serving alongside us! With over a hundred people from all generations, we packed 10,000 meals that went out to Second Harvest to be distributed to schools, food banks, and mobile markets. We can't wait 'til the next time we get to ring that gong!

Top of the Hill 11/12

The More Things Change, The More There Is To Grieve

As we age, the more our life circumstances change, and it can feel overwhelming to cope with multiple losses that our families don't always understand and our friends don't always talk about. In this Top of the Hill session, we will hear suggestions for things that can help us cope in a healthy way. Led by Heather Notske.

Liberty Park Community Development Center's Toy Store Toys Due 12/1, Toy Store 12/7

It may only be the beginning of November, but it's time to start the Liberty Park Toy Store drive! Let's take our 'thankfulness' and pay it forward. There are 3 ways to participate:

1. Sign-up to purchase toys on the Sign-up Genius: <https://bit.ly/ToyDriveSignUp2024>
2. Pull a tab from the poster in the church foyer to purchase specific toys.
3. Make monetary donations earmarked for the 'toy store'.

Drop your unwrapped toys in the bins in the church foyer by Sunday, 12/1. (or at the latest, Monday, 12/2!) The Toy Store date is Saturday, Dec 7. Last year's participation was so amazing, that Liberty Park 'paid it forward' donating further in their community.

Tai Chi (Moving for Better Balance) Class Starting Soon

Have you thought about trying Tai Chi? Join us to sample a way to improve balance and lower body strength in one or all of our FREE, 60-minute exercise sessions from 1-2 PM on these Thursday dates: 11/7, 11/14, 11/21, 12/5, and 12/12.

Sandy Nolting is trained in Tai Ji Quan: Moving for Better Balance. She will guide you in an introduction to this evidenced-based practice that can reduce your risk of injury from falling. Dress comfortably, bring water, and invite a friend or family member. Class is mostly standing but can be modified if you need to stay seated.

We Need Help Please

The Congregational Care Team is seeking individuals who continue to be an instrumental part of the Hamblen family; however, find it difficult to get out to attend church activities. A team member will make regular visits at your home to pray for, connect with, and bring Hamblen's community to you. All you have to do is reach out and accept the invitation. Contact Heather in the church office or leave a message for Betty Rogers at 509-230-7967.
